

Directions

1. Cut out pattern.
2. Trim around edges (including gray tabs).
3. Using a sharp corner (like an edge of a table), fold down on all solid black lines.
4. Fold up on the two dashed lines.
5. Place tape (sticky side up, attached to back side of paper) on all tabs.
6. Starting with the the middle rectangle, fold and attach tabs.
7. Dashed lines should meet to form the horizontal focus.
8. Tape the side tab of the "tail" next.
9. Tape the bottom of the "tail" so that the dotted lines are together.
10. Tape over the end of the "tail" that is marked as the vertical focus.
11. Use a liberal amount of tape as needed to close gaps and holes.
